Instructors:

Trey Ramsey: Coach Ramsey is the head coach of the South Iredell High School Baseball Team. He is a 2007 graduate of Lenoir-Rhyne College. He coached American Legion with Charlotte Post 262, and is a coach with the Heat Showcase Baseball Organization.

Jason Harris: Jason is a 2-time All-ACC player at Clemson University and an All-American at Brevard College. He now owns and operates the 7th Inning Stretch Baseball Facility in Hickory, NC. He also is the founder of the Heat Showcase Baseball Organization that competes in summer and fall showcase tournaments.

Scott Miller: Scott is the J.V. Baseball Coach at South Iredell High School. His past experience includes athletic accolades at Brevard High School in Football and Baseball. He has coached at Mooresville Middle School, and has spent his last 2 years as a Football and Baseball coach at South Iredell.

Dale Gonio: Dale has been an Assistant Coach at South Iredell High School for 4 years.

The camp will also employ varsity baseball players from South Iredell High School that will help in demonstrating the fundamental baseball skills that your child will learn.

Camp Layout:

Each day will consist of defensive and offensive sessions. Participants will be divided into small groups on the first day according to age group.

Players will practice fundamental skills in stations that will last 20 minutes each. Offensive skills that will be taught and practiced are sacrifice bunting, swing techniques, tee and soft toss drills, and hand-eye coordination activities. Defensive skills taught include footwork, fielding ground balls and fly balls, catching, pitching, and communication.

Players will be engaged in active participation throughout the duration of the camp.

On the final day of camp, players will participate in a variety of competitions that will be followed by a sliding technique session. Players must bring appropriate clothing that can get wet and a towel to dry off on that final day.
