

THE SECRET LIFE OF A TEEN

Join us in this collaborative effort between Iredell-Statesville Schools and many of our community partners that seek to support children and empower parents. Teens live in a world that is many times a secret to the adults around them.

Come and learn about the secret life of teens as it relates to drugs and alcohol, social media issues including sexting and cyberbullying, and other risky behaviors.

OCTOBER 9, 2018

4:00-8:00 p.m.

The Unity Center
(1145 Salisbury Road, Statesville, NC)

This event is not recommended for students under the age of 13. Simultaneous translation will be provided in Spanish. Food will be available for purchase from Dogs-R-Us.

KEYNOTE: PROTECTING YOUR CHILDREN FROM HUMAN TRAFFICKING

James Burns - Special Agent, Homeland Security Investigation

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

- Mobile Crime Lab - Iredell County Sheriff's Department
- Human Trafficking - James Burns, Homeland Security Investigation
- Opioids - Hugh Harris, NC Department of Justice
- Cyberbullying and Sexting - Statesville Police Department & Dove House
- Social Party Hosting - Mooresville Police Department
- Latino Cultural Awareness - Annie Vargas and Herbert Vanagas