Research childcare customs from other countries using books, Internet, or interviews with people from other cultures. Compare similarities and differences with the child care customs in the United States.